

121 Ronald Street Devonport TAS

4  1  1

This wonderful solid family home will welcome you with breathtaking views that also capture the ever-changing sun and moon rises. Situated in a highly desirable location of Devonport being close to beaches, walking tracks, schools and sporting facilities, properties in this area are hard to come by.

The home remains mainly in original condition except for the kitchen and downstairs area offering a fantastic opportunity to move in a style to your liking.

As you enter the home you are directed to the spacious living room and your attention immediately goes to the windows where the outlook over the city and sea are just mesmerising.

The separate dining room has access to the front balcony, this area flows through into the open kitchen offering plenty of bench and cupboard space, dishwasher and walk-in pantry plus more views right through to Mt. Roland. Off
